THE OFFICIAL PUBLICATION OF THE SOUVENIR CARD COLLECTORS SOCIETY

The Souvenir Card Collectors Society

WASHINGTON 2006

WORLD PHILATELIC EXHIBITION

ON THE COVER: A "homemade" souvenir card for Washington 2006 that I made from an old (1998) SCCS Annual Meeting card (see page 3).

The SCCS Annual Meeting was held at Washington 2006. A report on it and the show begins on page 3. A copy of the Annual souvenir card is enclosed.

One of the things that did happen was a change in SCCS officers, noted in the left-hand column on the opposite page (also see p. 11).

Last year, the Bureau produced six (6) souvenir cards, only one (the last one) of which they call a "souvenir card," even though the cards bear reference to the numismatic events at which they were issued. This year they are down to three "treasures" plus the so-called "Cherry Blossom" card which, curiously makes no mention of cherry blossoms, but rather, incorporates the words "Celebrating the Gift of Trees" (see p.12). Incidentally, I have shown only the "picture" portion of the card which is the same 10" x 8" size as their other cards (see p. 13).

Well, I am glad I didn't wait for these BEP cards to arrive before I completed the First Quarter issue. I was advised that they would take "two to three weeks" after they were issued. The ANA card ordered on 4 March and released on 7 April arrived the day after the issue went into the mail, i.e., 28 April. Ok, that's 3 weeks. But the Cherry Blossom card, issued 27 March and ordered on 10 April—when I found out about it—finally arrived on 10 May! Oh yes, it was accompanied by their latest (?) "Catalog 2005"!

So where are we going as group of collectors with a diminishing supply of cards to collect. As has been indicated previously in these pages, there are other intaglio printings out there. I believe all of Sweden's products are engraved and there are other European countries doing the same. Must you only "Buy American"?

Where is our Society heading? I hope I can find an answer. Any ideas? We added some new dues-paying members at the Washington show, but we still have 16 2005-members who have not renewed for 2006. Why? I do not know! I can only guess at some possible reasons: forgetfulness; frustration with the availability and/or price; or general apathy?

The "breakdown" of my so-called "mailing labels" listing, as of this date (26 June 2006) is as follows:

Total labels:	192
Life memberships	42
Officers	4
Complimentary	5
Dues paid for 2006	141

Those 2005 non-renewals have been erased from my records. If you have a friend and fellow member-collector, who has not received this or the previous issue, you might ask if his dues were paid?

I have included the first part of a "check list" in my "Visual Reference" series. I hope it may be useful, I do NOT offer it as a way of telling anyone HOW to collect. I will continue it (unless there is strong objection(s) while I explore a way to illustrate some of the other cards, e.g., IPPU, FMA, etc.

I have also included a "Mini-Auction" which, may or may not be continued depending on interest. I am NOT a dealer! The cards listed are some of my duplicates. I am NOT selling my collection! I would like some responsible member to take this on as I feel it is of benefit to the Society, NOT just financially by the commission charged the seller (10%), but for members to buy "missing" cards or dispose of duplicates. There are very few auctions which offer souvenir cards and, those that do, usually offer only large lots or "collections." I know of none which offer individual cards. Hence, the only source(s) are those dealers and members-dealers at retail prices. Anyone interested in the role should be a member of the APS or the ASDA for accountability purposes.

In the Second Quarter 2005 issue (p. C2), I noted that five copies of the previous issue had been returned by the USPS. Two copies of the last issue were returned. In both instances the member apparently moved without notifying Dana Marr. We do NOT have sufficient funds to re-mail (First Class) an issue which does not get to you because you failed to advise us of an address change. Consequently, the returned issue will only be re-mailed if YOU PAY the postage!

AT WASHINGTON-2006

William Kriebel (27)

I attended this latest event from the opening day, Saturday, 27 May, through Tuesday, 30 May. It was an interesting, tiring, and somewhat expensive (food and hotel) experience.

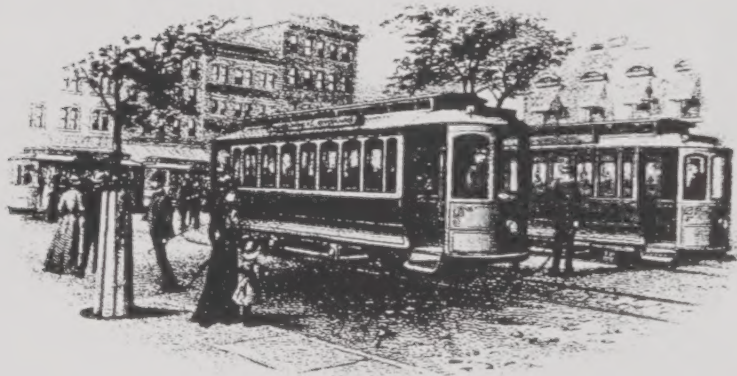

Our Society had a booth sponsored and manned by the Washington and Metro Chapters' members. This was the tenth international philatelic exhibition held in the United States. The others were: 1913, 1926, 1936 (TIPEX), 1947 (CIPEX), and 1956 (FIPEX) in New York City; 1966 (SIPEX) in Washington; 1976 (INTERPHIL 76) in Philadelphia; 1986 (AMERIPEX 86) in Rosemont, Illinois; and 1997 (PACIFIC 97) in San Francisco.

There were four first day ceremonies for U.S. stamps: Saturday—the "Wonders of America" stamps; Sunday—the joint issue with Canada honoring the voyage of Samuel de Champlain which was issued both as a single stamp and as a souvenir sheet; Monday—the show souvenir sheet; and Tuesday—the Distinguished Diplomats. Attendees received a large (9" x 6") FDOI cover when exiting the ceremonies, I missed the "Wonders" (the event occurred an hour or so before I arrived) and passed on the "Diplomats." I saw only the $1 and $2 souvenir sheet stamps on covers, i.e., no $5. Anyone get one?

I had made up several "first day of show cards" from our 1998 Annual meeting card (N-10) using a block of booklet stamps and a copy of the show promotional label to cover the original lettering (cover).

Mike Bean had a corner booth and demonstrated his art on his spider press using his Mc Kinley and street car engravings on 8" x 6" card stock (below, brown).

Celebrating the 100th Annual U.S. Christmas Seal, 1907 - 2006
The 1907 type 1 & 2 seals were designed by Miss Emily P. Bissell and the Capitol intaglio vignette was printed by Mike Bean of the Bureau of Engraving and Printing.

Washington 2006 World Philatelic Exhibition, May 27th - June 3rd

Mike Bean also pre-show printed three cards for the Christmas Seal and Charity Stamp Society. Two are his plates showing two different views of the Capitol. The eagle image was engraved by Yves Baril and made from a steel die, the seals are reproduced on either side rather than at the top. The cards are all 8" x 6". Images and descriptive text in black, lettering top and bottom in green and seals in red and green.

There was another spider press present at the booth of Sennett Security Products, which is affiliated with Banknote Corporation of America, Inc., some of whose work for the USPS was displayed on the booth walls. They printed the Washington 2006 souvenir sheet using the BEP-provided original 1923 plates which were also on display,

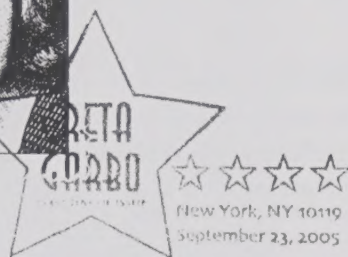

They also held a free, daily raffle three times a day (11:00, 1:00, and 3:00). Winners received either a souvenir sheet, one of three different versions, one from each drawing (opposite page), which incorporated a "stamp" engraved by Piotr Naszarkowski, who was also present and demonstrating his engraving technique. He (right, from his website) engraved the Greta Garbo portrait used on the U.S.—Sweden joint issue (below).

[Piotr Naszarkowski (website photo, upper right) was born in Warsaw, Poland, and graduated from the Academy of Fine Arts there in 1980. Soon afterwards he started to work for the Polish Security Printing Company engraving bank notes and postage stamps. His first stamp was issued in 1985.

He moved to Sweden in 1989 and worked with Czeslaw Slania (1921-2005) and finished his last three engraving works after Slania died, including (below) the Swedish Elvis Presley issue for "50 years of rock" and a duck stamp for the U.S. Department of the Interior.]

Their spider press demonstration produced a small graphic which was also included in the raffle as an alternate to the souvenir sheet (I did not "win" a copy.).

Two other security printers, Ashton Potter and Avery Dennison, "shared" the other sides of the booth distributing small, non-engraved, souvenirs but held no raffles.

Mike Bean also printed the souvenir card sponsored by the Washington and Metro Chapters (next page). The lettering at the top was pre-printed by Ralph Calabrese of the Metro Chapter. The "Washington 2006" and the Chapter logos are in red, the Capitol in blue, and the remaining text in black. The FDOI cancel is also in black. The card is 8" x 10" and doesn't quite fit!

All three sheets have the engraved "stamp" featuring the Capitol dome and Abraham Lincoln in the upper right corner. SOUVENIR CARD
COLLECTORS SOCIETY

The Souvenir Card Collectors Society

May 27 - June 3, 2006

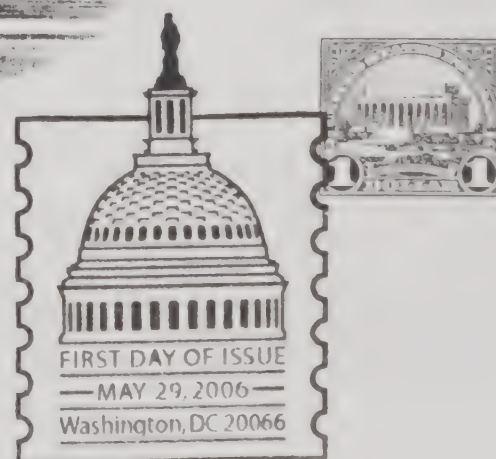

There was another security printer represented with a booth—SEP SPRINT—from Australia. On request, they gave out a little booklet which contained and interesting color view of Sydney harbor including a “stamp” outline of the Opera House (above)

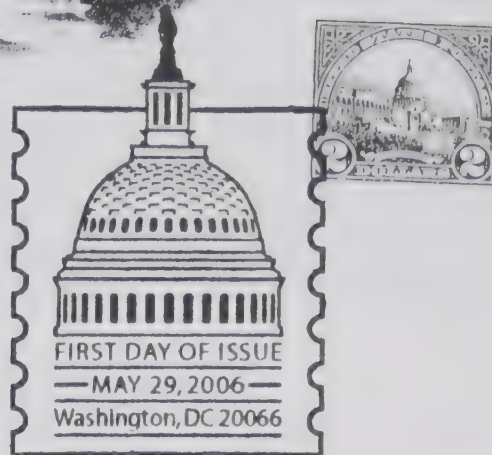

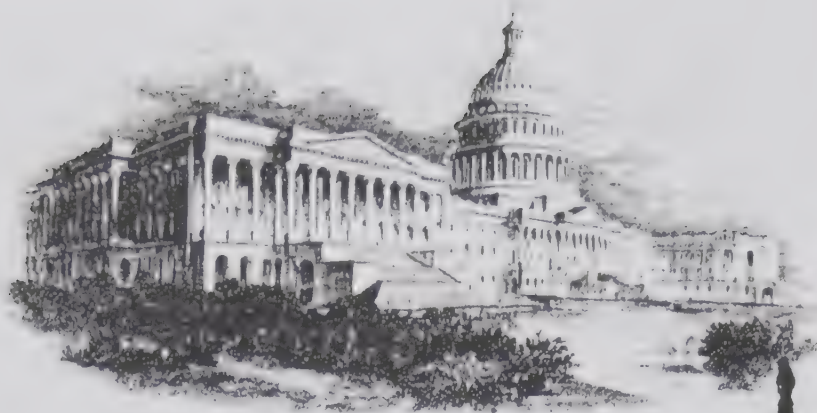

I believe that the BEP made a big error in not having a sales booth at this show in their “back-yard”! I believe that their vignettes would have definitely sold (right) as alternative FDOI items. Its thinking is akin to a comment overheard about the large numbers of people present and “how much money could have been made if they had charged admission”! There were crowds of people there because it was free and, from the quantities waiting in line to buy USPS products, a lot of money was made by what, I suspect, were souvenir collectors or “tourists,” not serious philatelists. “Passports” were abundant with folks buying various countries’ stamps to stick in a little book and secured by various cancels. (It reminded me of the days of S&H green stamps!)

But then, are we “serious philatelists” or collectors or accumulators? You decide.

2006 ANNUAL MEETING

WORLD PHILATELIC EXHIBITION ★ WASHINGTON, DC

The SCCS Annual Meeting was scheduled for 12:00 noon on Monday, 29 May, as noted in the last Journal (page C2). It was rescheduled to 10:00 a.m. to avoid a conflict with the FDOI ceremony for the USPS Distinguished American Diplomats stamps. But the Sennett raffle caused the meeting to be cut short, as some in attendance left, and so, some business was left unfinished.

There were 24 people present: Mike Bean, Arthur Benjamin, Lyle Boardman, Ralph Calabrese, David Clark, William Cornelius, Georgette Cornio, Sid Crawford, Frank Crowe, Larry Dodson, Milton Goldsant, Bob Hallett, Doug Holl, Cliff Joseph, Larry Leyser, Neal Parr, John Parker, Steve Patrick, and myself. Apparently six did not sign the attendance sheet. Mr. Cornelius and Mr. Crawford joined at the show, but I do not know the status of the other un-highlighted name. (Six other people joined during the show!)

There was a discussion about the status of our Society and the souvenir card hobby in general. Our paid membership continues to decline along with the Bureau's output.

Art Benjamin announced his decision to vacate the position of President, but will remain as Treasurer. He reported that the current bank statement indicates $3,285± in the SCCS account.

This was followed by a discussion about this Journal, its format and frequency. I noted that the size of the First Quarter issue had been reduced for cost reasons, not the least of which is that the current printer realized he had not been charging enough, i.e., he had been using older rates. I also noted that there was absolutely NO RESPONSE or REACTION from the membership to the reduced size! Maybe no one noticed!

It was voted to continue the current format, i.e., 20 pages plus the stiff covers. I pointed out that the "dues" include the Annual Meeting Card (a copy illustrated opposite with cancel on the meeting date, i.e., FDOI), of which a mint copy is included with this issue and, if compared to other cards, is a $5.00 value. Depending on finances, there will be at least one more issue this year. I hope we can afford two!

There were some changes in the "officers." The position(s) of "Members at Large" was eliminated. Steve Patrick is now Vice President, Lee Quast takes on the position of Publicity Director, and will "spread the word" at the many numismatic shows that he attends.

I was "elected" as "Interim-President," a position that I don't wish to have. (I do not plan to write two columns in each issue, so you will note that the "President's Message" has been/will be deleted for the "interim.") In another organization for which I am the Journal editor, I am also the "Interim-Secretary-Treasurer," a position I took over when the then "Secretary-Treasurer" had a heart attack and subsequent multiple by-pass surgery. That was several years ago! This is not a problem for me as I am the only payee and I do the mailing, i.e., produce the labels, and get the Journal to the printer and into the mail. I make an annual report to the Association's board. Consequently, this "Interim-President" is looking for someone else to have the "honor." Any volunteers?

The status of the "auction" was brought up briefly, but no solution was proposed and the discussion was abbreviated by the departure of many for the raffle. Here again is an opportunity for a volunteer! Any one interested? You should be a member of the APS or ASDA. I have inserted a Mini-Auction in this issue as a starting point. We'll see what happens!

SCCS MINI-AUCTION NO. 1

William Kriebel (27)

The last auction we had was in the First Quarter 2005 issue and I have never heard the results of same. In the interest of renewing the auction (while waiting for a responsible member to take it on) I am offering the lots listed below. If there is little or NO interest, the auction will be discontinued. Please adhere to the following rules. I am an APS member since 1977.

RULES:

1. Only souvenir cards or intaglio printed items are acceptable for consignment. Interested sellers should contact the "interim-auctioneer," i.e., me, with any questions and before sending any material. The best contact would be by e-mail: kriebewv@drexel.edu

2. Any lot submitted should have a minimum bid indicated and include the correct SCCS numbers, for which the consignor is responsible. The minimum bid per lot is $5.00. Material of lesser value should be grouped to meet the minimum. Material will be accepted for auction in the order received (after prior contact). The "interim-auctioneer" reserves the right to refuse material offered, especially in the case of duplication. Damaged material is NOT acceptable.

3. Consignors will pay the postage to ship their lots and the return postage for unsold material. There is NO consignment fee, however, the SCCS will retain 10% of the selling price as a commission fee. Care shall be taken to protect any material submitted, but the "interim-auctioneer" and the SCCS assumes NO liability and the consignor(s) should verify and/or provide their own insurance coverage.

4. Lots will be sold to the highest bidder at 10% over the second highest bid. In the case of tie bids, the first received will be awarded the lot. Bids below the "minimum bid" listed are NOT accepted. Bid in $1.00 increments only, i.e., NOT "cents."

5. Successful bidders will pay the postage and insurance for their lots. There is NO buyer's fee, but NO material will be shipped until the invoice for same is paid in full. Checks should be made out to the auctioneer NOT the SCCS.

6. The items listed in this auction are from my own duplicates, NOT my collection. More than one copy is sometimes available and will be sold if there are more than one bid on an item listed.

7. Any questions, use e-mail address above.

NOTES:

(1) Large cards carry EXTRA mailing charge of $2.00 PER ORDER.

(2) These cards are still listed on their web site, moneyfactory.com, go to "The BEP Store," as of June 2006. They are still offered as a "Subscription" for $85 for all five (5). or $27.50 less than the individual purchase of all five The "Souvenir Cards" lists those produced in 2000 and that for the Western Currency Facility. The Lewis and Clark bank note card is "sold out" but the "Westward Journey" is still offered.

(3) I believe that the Chapter One NAPEX cards for 2002 and 2003 are still available at $6.00 each ppd. Card for 2004 was sold out.

(4) The "subscription" price for the three (3) cards was listed at $51.00, which they indicated was $16.50 less than the individual card price. They are now called "Commemorative Intaglio Prints." As for 2005, the subscription price works out to $17 each. "To ensure that you receive all three intaglio prints in the 'Ten Dollar Reflections' collection you MUST subscribe by April 6, 2006." The "offer" is still listed.

(5) This card was initially offered at $10.00 each. After two days the price was three for $10.00, but you had to buy three. I do not know what the current price or availability is or if both Chapters are handling the post-show sales. The card is 8" x 10" so, presumably would carry the premium (see Note (1) above).
